VICEROY SNOWMASS OPENS NEWLY RENOVATED OUTDOOR POOL, BAR & SPA

Snowmass Village, CO (Oct. 1, 2018) – Just in time for ski season, Viceroy Snowmass, an award-winning hotel with an enviable slope side location has completed a multi-million dollar renovation — in all, the project includes an entirely new ski-in/ski-out bar, an update to perennial favorite Nest pool bar, and an addition of almost 400 square feet of outdoor space (a 65 percent increase).

“With our premier slope side location on Snowmass Ski Mountain, it’s our goal to make the mountain experience as seamless as possible for our guests,” said Robert Purdy, general manager of Viceroy Snowmass. “Our newly renovated outdoor spaces recapture the beauty of being in the mountains while providing luxury touches our hotel is known for.”

The renovation notably includes a new open-air bar adjacent to the outdoor pool, and located directly on the slopes of Snowmass at Assay Hill — an extension of the hotel’s existing restaurant, Nest. Open to the public, this new bar offers a menu of local beers, carefully crafted cocktails, house-made juices, and an entirely new, exclusive food menu. The bar also has two 55-inch televisions to catch the big game between runs on the hill.

The spa includes three new soaking tubs, which accommodate both recreation and rejuvenation after a long day of skiing with jets specifically designed to focus on calves, quads and the lower back. The two newest spas can comfortably accommodate up to 24 guests each and feature a waterfall wall and two infinity edges to further activate the senses with the relaxing sounds of trickling water.

In addition to the newly opened outdoor spaces, Viceroy Snowmass recently completed additional enhancements to the hotel’s main public areas; including: a new restaurant, TORO Kitchen & Lounge, from acclaimed Chef-Restaurateur, Richard Sandoval; a new lobby with a coffee and pastry shop, Café V; a state-of-the-art fitness center; and a new yoga studio.
